

Level 2 NVQ Diploma in Innovative/ Modern Methods of Construction

This qualification is appropriate for employees in the construction and built environment sector working across a broad range of areas.

It is designed to assess occupational competence in the workplace where learners are required to demonstrate skills and knowledge to a level required in the construction industry.

This qualification allows learners to demonstrate competence in modular/portable buildings at a level required by the construction and built environment industry.

Mandatory Units

- › Conforming to General Health, Safety and Welfare in the Workplace
- › Conforming to Productive Working Practices in the Workplace
- › Moving, Handling and Storing Resources in the Workplace

Optional Units

Candidates must complete one optional unit from Group 1 and two optional units from Group 2.

Group 1

- › Installing and Dismantling Prefabricated Modular Building Structures in the Workplace
- › Installing and Dismantling Prefabricated Portable Cabins and Units in the Workplace

Group 2

- › Installing First Fixing Components in the Workplace
- › Installing Basic Plumbing in the Workplace
- › Slinging and Signalling the movement of Loads in a secondary role in the Workplace
- › Applying Paint Systems by Brush and Roller in the Workplace
- › Maintaining Non-Structural Components in the Workplace
- › Maintaining Non- Structural Carpentry Work in the Workplace

What will I get?

After successful completion you will be awarded the ProQual Level 2 NVQ Diploma in Innovative/Modern Methods of Construction Certificate.

How long will it take?

Ongoing.

Please don't hesitate to get in touch for help or advice.

07437 216915

info@towercranetraining.co.uk